In order to address the MCA 2020 Batch students issue related to Optimization Techniques/Accounting exam, the department thoroughly analyzed the case and went into technical depths.

The department believes that in order to resolve this Internet-related issue, all students be offered the option to appear in offline MCQ exam, to be conducted soon, provided that they submit a signed affidavit attested by 1st Class Magistrate, before 6th August 2021 stating the following:

- That the student confirms that he/she faced genuine internet issues during the exam in above subject.
- That they will forgo the marks obtained in online exam already conducted and accept the marks received in new offline exam.
- Students who don't appear in new exam agree to accept and honor marks already received and no action is needed in their case.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks for the chair.
