Dear Prof.,

Greetings from 4th Indian Workshop on Applied Deep Learning (IWADL2023)!

You would be happy to know that Department of Computer Science BITS Pilani is organizing an application oriented premier workshop on Deep Learning at BITS Pilani, at GOA Campus during June 12-16, 2023. For that we invite participation from your institute. Indian Workshop on Applied Deep Learning (IWADL-2019) is in its fourth meeting. Earlier it was conducted two times at IIT Mandi and once at BITS Pilani, Pilani campus. The workshop targets motivated professionals, scholars at Undergraduate/master/Ph.D. level and faculty members who want to pursue work in the area of advanced machine learning. Researchers and experts from various premier Indian institutes (such as IIT Delhi, IIT Kharagpur, IIT Mandi, IIIT Hyderabad, BITS Pilani, Herman, Fuzutsu and more) have will participate as a resource person. The workshop will have intense lectures and hands-on sessions on both basic and advanced topics. The aim is to give exposure to recent advances in the area of deep learning to the participants. There is no prerequisite to attend.

IWADL provides excellent opportunity to interact with the leading researchers to discuss and explore state of the art in focused area. Stay and food is included in the registration and it is going to be a great learning with fun. Early registration dates are extended till May 15, 2023. Information regarding the course, list of topics, and expert speakers can be found at the website at

I look forward to meeting and welcoming participants from your institute to IWADL-2023! Attaching the workshop flyer, it is requested to kindly forward it at appropriate forums. I would love to answer any further queries.

Best Wishes.
