Notification

It is notified for the information of all concerned that the Vice-Chancellor on the recommendations of the Deans Committee and in anticipation of the approval of the competent body has authorized the following modifications in the existing scheme of Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) at P.G level.

The student/s shall be required to earn a minimum of 96 credits to qualify for the award of 02-year postgraduate degree as per the new scheme of CBCS mentioned below:

Categories of courses	Credits to be earned
Core	56 Instead of existing 48
Discipline Centric Electives	32 As per existing scheme
Generic/Open Electives	08 Instead of existing 16

Core courses:

A student shall have to earn the additional 8 credits in the entire programme of 04 semesters in addition to existing 48. Accordingly the departments may offer these 08 credits in the semesterized manner in the formation i.e., (2, 2, 2, 2) or (4, 4) or (4, 2, 2) or (2, 2, 4).

Discipline Centric Electives:

Each student shall continue to earn 32 credits in the entire programme.

Generic/Open Electives:

Each student shall have to earn only 08 credits in the entire programme.

Head of Department and Academic Councilors of the concerned department shall counsel the students to opt for GE/OE courses from the 'Course Basket'.

The HOD shall also identify UGC MOOC Courses having credit value of not more than 25% being offered on UGC SWAYAM platform from Open Courses, for the students. However, the courses shall have to be identified by the HOD and forwarded to the Chief Coordinator/Deputy Registrar (Academic) for uploading the same on the University Website for the information of the students.
