Subject: Proposal for offering 3-week Paid Python internship with Registration Fee of Rs.3000/internee.

As desired by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, and in alignment with the vision of fostering widespread computational literacy and programming skills among eligible learners, the Department of Computer Science, University of Kashmir, proposes a three-week Python paid internship with a nominal registration fee of Rs.3000/-. This initiative aims to provide structured and quality training opportunities, empowering participants with foundational programming skills in python and encouraging their pursuit of technology-driven careers.

Objectives of the Internship:

1. Provide an introduction to Python programming in an engaging and interactive manner.
2. Enable participants to develop logical reasoning and problem-solving skills through hands-on programming tasks.
3. Demonstrate the practical applications of programming in various domains.

Program Details:

- Duration: Three weeks (15 days): Each day shall have 2 sessions (Morning & Evening), and each session shall be of 2 hours duration.
- Target Audience: Students pursuing BCA, BSc IT, B.Tech., MSc, or MCA shall be eligible for the internship.
- Number of Participants: for the programme to be launched, minimum of registration shall be 20 and maximum number of registrations shall be 30.
- Venue: Department of Computer Science, University of Kashmir, Srinagar.
- Mode of Delivery: On-campus sessions, including lectures, practical coding sessions, and group exercises.
- Registration Fee: Rs.3000/- per internee, which shall be deposited in the Local Fund account of the Department and the account records shall be maintained by the Departmental office.

Benefits to Participants:

- Hands-on experience in programming with Python.
- An Internship certificate from the Department of Computer Science, University of Kashmir.
- Collaborative learning opportunities.

Remuneration and Budgetary Support: Two trainers and two support staff members shall be involved and shall be due for remuneration from the funds raised on account of registration charges of internees. Moreover, same shall be used to meet the additional operational expenditure, if any, incurred for the proposed internship.

The proposed remuneration for the two trainers & two support staff to be engaged for the internship shall be as per following break-up:

1. For each training session of 2 hours, Rs.2000/= shall be paid to each trainer.
2. For each training session of 2 hours, Rs.1000/= shall be paid to each support staff member.

However, in case, the funds raised on account of registration charges are lesser than the expenditure incurred for the internship, the deficit funds shall be provided by the University Administration from their consolidated/relevant Budget Heads to be identified for the purpose. Moreover, the paid internship shall be launched w.e.f. 1st Feb, 2025, only if a minimum of 20 registrations are recorded for the internship.

Hence, submitted for approval of the concerned Authority.
